You are welcomed to watch a film series about the greatest schism in the history of the church called the Protestant Reformation on Sunday, May 19th at 10:15 am in the parish library.

In the Gospel this 6th Sunday of Easter, Jesus reveals the essence of his relationship with his disciples and the profound depth of divine love. He speaks of a love that transcends human understanding, drawing parallels to the boundless love shared between Himself and the Father. Jesus urges his followers to dwell in this love, highlighting its inseparable link to obedience to His teachings. At the heart of his message lies the command to love sacrificially, mirroring His own selflessness displayed in His willful sacrifice on the cross. Through this transformative love, Jesus elevates his disciples from mere servants to cherished friends, empowered to bear enduring fruit. His words redefine the relationship with God, emphasizing genuine friendship rooted in love rather than a master-slave dynamic. Jesus, as both divine and human, epitomizes sacrificial love, offering his life as the ultimate expression of devotion. In this divine exchange, God's boundless generosity requires only fidelity to His commands, fostering a relationship where love begets love, and obedience blossoms into joyful friendly companionship.

Today, we seal the time capsule which will be opened on our parish's 100th foundation anniversary in the year 2047. Through the intercession of our patroness St. Margaret Mary, may our journey towards our centenary celebrations be truly a moment of grace for our parish 'to be grateful always, ever joyful, and constantly hopeful as one Body of Christ' (theme of the 75th celebration)!

En el Evangelio de este sexto domingo de Pascua, Jesús revela la esencia de su relación con sus discípulos y la profundidad del amor divino. Habla de un amor que trasciende la comprensión humana, estableciendo paralelos con el amor ilimitado compartido entre Él y el Padre. Jesús pide a sus seguidores que vivan en este amor, destacando su vínculo con la obediencia a sus enseñanzas. En el centro de su mensaje se encuentra el mandamiento de amar con sacrificio, copiando Su propio altruismo mostrado en Su sacrificio en la cruz. A través de este amor transformador, Jesús eleva a sus discípulos de siervos a amigos queridos, capacitados para dar frutos duraderos. Sus palabras redefinen la relación con Dios, enfatizando la amistad genuina arraigada en el amor en lugar de una dinámica amo-esclavo. Jesús, tanto divino como humano, ejemplifica el amor sacrificial, ofreciendo su vida como máxima expresión de devoción. En este intercambio divino, la generosidad ilimitada de Dios sólo requiere fidelidad a sus mandamientos, fomentando una relación donde el amor engendra amor y la obediencia florece en compañerismo gozoso.

Hoy sellamos la cápsula del tiempo que se abrirá en el centenario de la fundación de nuestra parroquia en el año 2047. Por la intercesión de nuestra patrona Santa Margarita María, que nuestro camino hacia las celebraciones del centenario sea verdaderamente un momento de gracia para nuestra parroquia. ¡Estar siempre agradecidos, siempre gozosos y constantemente esperanzados como un solo Cuerpo de Cristo' (tema de la 75ª celebración)!
